DC Chapter Director

Nov-Dec 2022

Another liturgical year is nearing an end. In these final weeks of ordinary time, the scriptures point us to the end times, Christ coming as our King, and the promise of eternal life. We then have the privilege of beginning the salvation story anew by turning to the incarnation, God with us. Advent brings the hope, joy, and promise of a transformed and deeper connection with the story of Christ, and the reminder that we are a Paschal people from start to finish.

This year we also have the opportunity of experiencing the start of the three-year cycle by going back to the Gospel of Matthew in Year A. On the fourth Sunday of Advent, we hear the announcement of the angel to Joseph as recounted in the first chapter of Matthew.

This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.

Joseph did what many would not do. His "yes" rescued Mary from being an unwed mother and the punishment and ostracization that she surely would have endured, and he saved Jesus from the lifelong taint of an illegitimate birth. As a Jewish man he was certainly familiar with the prophet Isaiah foretelling the birth of the Messiah, but what a shock to learn in a dream that he would become the earthly father of the Savior of the Jewish people. Only an extraordinarily godly and loving man would arise from his dream and do exactly as he was told! And how different would our story have been if he wasn't obedient to the angel. So, we have the opportunity this Advent to ponder the story of Joseph. If you are looking for a piece of music which beautifully encapsulates Joseph's encounter, consider using "Song of Elizabeth/Song of Joseph". As an added bonus, the same piece may also be used when the scripture points us to the Visitation. As we journey ever closer to a new liturgical year and cycle may we find new places to say yes to Christ's call in our lives and make space for the encounter of God with us.

Blessings to you and all those you love as we anticipate and prepare for the arrival of our Savior as a child and coming King.
Saint Joseph, pray for us.

Breakout Sessions for Liturgy Day!

Saturday November 12, 2022 9-12:30pm

7600 Old Keene Mill Road, Springfield, VA 22152

Register here

NPM Arlington looks forward to your registration for Liturgy Day. In preparation for this event, please see the descriptions on the two options each attendee has for the workshop.

Breakout A:

Responsorial Psalms: Literary Sources and Vocal Practice

David Mathers will give a presentation focusing on preparing and singing the psalms of the responsorial psalm.

Preparation from a literary perspective: what is this psalm about? why were these verses selected for this day? how do they fit with the other readings? and applying this knowledge to how the psalm can be effectively proclaimed.

Breakout B:

Organ Repertoire for the Church Year

Timothy Lewicki will focus on repertoire for Organ throughout the liturgical year. Learn of pieces on the organ for your liturgical year, and hear something new!

CANTOR WORKSHOP
OCTOBER 22:
PRECIOUS
BLOOD,
CULPEPER, VA

Cantors came from 3 parishes in the Arlington Diocese: St. Isidore the Farmer, St. John's, and Precious Blood.

CANTOR WORKSHOP Re-Cap

On Saturday, October 22, Janet Natale graciously came down to Precious Blood Catholic Church in Culpeper to present an enriching local workshop for cantors. There were eighteen cantors from Precious Blood, St. Isidore the Farmer in Orange and from St. John's in Mclean in attendance. Many of the cantors volunteered to sing through a psalm and receive personal tips and advice on how to proclaim it even more effectively. We learned techniques to help with breath control, phrasing, gestures and psalm preparation. We learned to ask ourselves "Who is doing the speaking in this psalm?" and "To whom is this psalm being addressed? (God or assembly?)" and how that should change our countenance and delivery. Janet shared her expertise gently but honestly in such a way that all were able to learn helpful ways to improve in their personal ministry as leaders of sung prayer at the altar of God. Thank you, Janet, for blessing us with your time and talents! And a special thank you to Rick Gibala for arranging this great opportunity for those of us on the outskirts of our diocese!

Happy Hour

NPM-DC members were warmly welcomed by the host and bartenders at Clydes of Rockville, where the latest social was held on Sept. 23rd. The appetizers were plentiful and delicious, and shared by all. Non-board members were treated to a round of drinks (while board members picked up their own beverage tabs). It was a lovely late afternoon to venture out, and the space we had was ample for a few hours of meeting and mingling with pastoral musicians from around the area.

Clyde's in Tower Oaks was the perfect spot for NPM Chapter musicians to relax!

Arlington Mass and Dinner

Two past Chapter Directors of NPM Arlington, Rick Gibala and David Mathers at the annual Arlington Chapter Mass and Dinner at All Saints parish in Manassas

The annual NPM Arlington Chapter Mass and dinner were held at Chapter Director Tim Lewicki's parish of All Saints in Manassas, Va., on Sept. 9. About 40 people attended. Chapter Chaplain Fr. Don Rooney was the Mass's main celebrant. Concelebrating were the new Arlington Cathedral/Diocesan Director of Music Fr. Vincent Ferrer Bagan and longtime chapter member Fr. Mike Bazan, pastor of St. Clare of Assisi parish in Clifton, Va. During dinner, the Past Chapter Director David Mathers presented a plaque to outgoing chapter board member and retired Arlington Cathedral/Diocesan Director of Music Rick Gibala. Tears of joy and appreciation flowed freely. Rick expressed his gratitude in a message to the Arlington board later that evening: "Thank you for the beautiful plaque and recognition. That was totally unexpected and appreciated more than you can know. Thank you from the bottom of my heart."

In Memoriam for Our Beloved Dead

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Dear God,
we thank you for the wonderful memories
we have of our departed loved ones.
We are grateful when these memories
bring us happiness and comfort.

Help us to continue to keep the memories of our loved ones alive
by living out the gifts and virtues
we treasured so much in their lives.

May our remembrance of them
in this way help their spirit to live on in us,
and may the virtues contribute to building
your kingdom here on earth.

Amen.

All Good and Holy People:
Prayers for remembering loved ones, Twenty-Third Pub.

How do you prepare for Advent?

This question is answered by fellow Catholic Music Directors around the country!

*"I try to streamline my schedule.
I won't give private lessons during December. That gives me close to 11 hours to "redistribute" my time and cut down my commute."*

"I stay away from Christmas parties in Advent.
I don't do much Christmas shopping until the week after Christmas."

*I already made my hotel
reservation for Christmas Eve to Christmas Day so that I can maintain
"Retreat" mode instead of my 45 minute
commute.*

"Home life is kept simple."

*"Again... keeping it simple.
My goal is to approach Advent and Christmas
from a place of prayer."*

*"I simplify and narrow the repertoire so that the music team can be a bit more
"Mary has chosen
the better part" as opposed to being like Martha burying herself with busy work."*

*"I try to

St. Cecilia Prayer Resource: Free to all NPM members

During the month of November we pray to St. Cecilia for her intercession, especially on her feast day, November 22. NPM provides a free, downloadable prayer resource to pause and reflect on the gifts we have been given and share with others. This resource is available for all active NPM members and was sent on November 1 to all active members. This prayer resource is made for individual or group use; feel free to forward this to your parish choir, cantors, or other music ministers.

NPM Prayer Choir on the Feast of St. Cecilia

Join NPM in a "Prayer Choir" on the Feast of St. Cecilia! All NPM members are invited to pray wherever they are, at 3 pm local time on November 22. Thousands of pastoral musicians will take a moment of prayer that day, asking for the intercession of St. Cecilia, the patroness of music.

St. Cecilia,
Pray for us!

Christmas Music

Nov. Dec. 2022

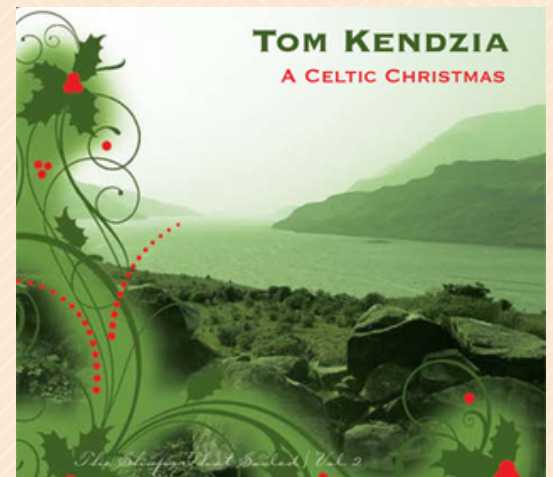

Through Chris de Silva's incredible choral writing and inspired instrumental scoring, the themes of Christmas are exquisitely retold – those of light, darkness, shepherds, angels, heaven, earth, fear, wonder, peace, joy, silence, and sound.

Chris's formal, classical composition training shines through on each piece. From the joyfully powerful "Singing, We Come Singing" to the regal "The Child Is Born in Bethlehem" and the dance-like "Shepherds on to Bethlehem," each of these eight pieces work beautifully as stand-alone choices for your choir's Christmas celebrations. Together, the pieces would work well as part of a well-rounded lessons and carols service.

For choral music lovers, the Mysterium recording will become one of your seasonal favorites! – GIA Music

Lively, new arrangements of well-known hymns and carols
A Christmas sequel to The Ships That Sailed, this instrumental collection features lively, new arrangements of well-known hymns and carols. Contemporary guitar stylings complement a traditional Irish blend of fiddle, flute, pipes and more, giving the recordings a fresh and unique sound. These 15 tracks, including 2 medleys, showcase players who are regarded as among the best in Ireland. Composer and arranger Tom Kendzia masterfully captures the energy of this enthusiastic group of musicians as they belt out reels, jigs, airs and other traditional Irish favorites.

"Apples in Winter" opens the album with a swift, non-stop tempo. Cello longingly cries out with droning lows and weeping highs in "What Child Is This." Both "Sliavh Gallen" and "An Chiulfhionn" feature captivating and intricate runs on the harp. Finally, "Gooseberry Reels" will have listeners stomping their feet and clapping their hands as flute, fiddle and accordion playfully battle back and forth.

A Celtic Christmas provides a musical backdrop for celebrating the joy-filled season of Christmas. From rousing dance numbers to deeply spiritual ballads, this collection transports the listener to the living room of an Irish party brimming with holiday cheer.
